

Chief Assistant Prosecutor

Assistant Summit County Prosecutor Brian LoPrinzi graduated from Baylor University with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. He worked as a circuit court clerk in Virginia for several years before attending the University Of Akron School Of Law. While attending law school, he worked for the City of Akron Law Department as a legal intern in the criminal division. He joined the Summit County Prosecutor's Office in 1996. Not counting the three years when he left to work for a private law firm as a civil defense attorney, he has been with the Summit County Prosecutor's Office for 17 years.
